

March for Peace and Human Rights in Tibet

“Use your liberties to promote ours.”

New Mexico's Tibetan community and friends of Tibet invite you to join us for a peaceful march commemorating the 51st anniversary of the Tibetan uprising day, the day when Tibetans rose up against Communist China resulting in the deaths of thousands of Tibetans at the hands of the Chinese and the Dalai Lama's exile into India.

Please join us on this march to give a voice to the suppressed in Tibet. Help us highlight China's human rights abuses and speak for peace and justice.
